Dear Dr. Piovano Luca,

it is a great pleasure and honor to have you join the 7th edition of IPAM Congress and be part of the faculty of IPAM 2020 that will take place in Milan on 5th and 6th June 2020 at Humanitas Congress Center.

The Congress, as in previous editions, wants to provide a valuable basis for a practical up-to-date of medical doctors, featuring a productive exchange of ideas in a multidisciplinary environment.

As you know, the selection of the faculty is the key in the definition of the scientific format as well as a successful event and for this reason, I am pleased to have you join the faculty.

Thank you for accepting our invitation. I will keep in touch regarding the scientific details. After your official written confirmation, the organizing committee will contact you for all the details regarding the agenda and your stay.

I remain at your disposal.

Sincerely,

Prof. Redaelli Alessio
